

Dear Homeschooling Family,

May the Peace of Christ be with you!

As a homeschooling parent myself, I know the joys and struggles of homeschooling. I admire your efforts and desire to give your child the Catholic Faith in this setting. Teaching the Faith at home provides you and your child with the opportunity to discuss our Catholic Faith, Traditions, and Heritage in a deeply meaningful way.

I am pleased to present to you two methods of homeschooling available through St. Michael's Religious Education Department.

Traditional Homeschool Program – this program has been successfully implemented by many parents over the course of the past 5 years. With this program you use the Faith & Life Book Series at home at a time convenient for you and your family. The program consists of a textbook, workbook, and teacher's manual. Accountability is maintained by quarterly meetings with the DRE. Cost – varies by grade ($20 average)

Online Homeschool Program – Families may sign up for the program online at www.mycatholicfaithdelivered.com All instruction is done online. The actual Faith & Life Series text is presented along with rich catechetical media resources. Families may sign up for a free preview at the site to decide if it is right for them. Accountability is maintained by parents emailing course reports (provided through the program) to the DRE. Cost - $25 per course. (Adult courses are also available on the site)

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have concerning either option. Please be assured of my prayers for you and your family!

In Christ,

James M. Hahn
